OBSERVATIONS

HARD POSITION—Gov. Wilson certainly occupies a very unenviable position as regards the night riders' outrages. He was roundly scolded and abused from some quarters because he appeared to be slow to act about spending troops to the scene of the night riders' troubles and when he acts and sends soldiers to certain towns and attempts to apprehend these law breakers he is abused by some little county newspaper whose editor thinks to make a hit with the tobacco growers or rather that element which advocates the no crop and the pooling idea. One of the most inconsistent positions and the most uncalculated for attack was in the Louisville Mercury. Carlisle is the county where the most distasteful outrage of the entire night riders campaign was committed a short while ago. It was near Carlisle that Hiram Hedges, a hard working farmer, who refused to obey the commands of the tobacco society about cutting out the crop of 1908 was visited by a mob one night about a month ago and after being called to his door was shot down in cold blood in the presence of his wife and children. It was to this place that Gov. Wilson sent a small company of state troops for what purpose it does not appear but it was probably in an effort to ferret out and arrest some of the outlaws guilty of cold-blooded murder. It is hard to conceive of an editor so blinded by prejudice or so anxious to curry favor with a certain element as to make an attack on the governor of our state because he is using every available means to suppress this lawlessness which has made a blot on the fair name of Kentucky that will take years to obliterate. The Mercury after roundly criticizing the act of the governor in sending troops to Carlisle says: "If Governor Wilson is going to run his administration by military power we are willing to wager a jug of butter he will soon succeed, goes crazy or resigns before his term is out. The people of Kentucky won't stand for military rule any more than they will for ring rule and this Fall will demonstrate this fact to the satisfaction of the military administration." We take it that the people of Kentucky, that is the law-abiding element much prefer military rule than night riders' rule, but thanks to the firm stand taken by Gov. Wilson and the good people who have backed him up we trust that we will not be called on to stand for either.

MAY LEAVE THE STATE.—Owing to the war that is being made on the American Tobacco Co., in certain districts in Kentucky and the insane prejudice which has been aroused against that concern, there is strong talk of it withdrawing from the State. If such a thing is brought about it will be a sorry blow to the tobacco interests of the State, for while the tobacco trust may have its faults, it certainly has its uses. It creates a market for tobacco that no other corporation or number of corporations could create in years to come. In regard to the reported withdrawal from the State a dispatch from Lexington says: "According to the statement of F. R. Toewater of this city, who is the general manager of the leaf department of the American Tobacco Co. in Kentucky, the American Tobacco Co. will sell all of its warehouses and other property in this city. All the tobacco which the company bought here during the winter has been shipped. Although Mr. Toewater was reticent and guarded in his statements for publication, in private statements officials of the American Tobacco Company here intimate that the American Tobacco Co. has decided to withdraw from the State as a purchaser of leaf tobacco. It is understood that the company will now turn its attention to the development of tobacco production in other States and expect to quickly build up a production and market which will take the place of that left behind in Kentucky. Missouri is expected to be the principal beneficiary, and officials of the trust here express the opinion that that State will, in future, supply the needs of the company for tobacco heretofore furnished by Kentucky.

Tired nerves, with that "no ambitions" feeling that is commonly felt in spring or early summer, can be easily and quickly altered by taking what is known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. One will absolutely not be changed feeling within 48 hours after beginning to take the Restorative. The bowels get sluggish in the winter-time, the circulation often slows up the kidneys are inactive, even the heart in many cases grows decidedly weaker. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is recognized everywhere as a genuine tonic to these vital organs. It builds up and strengthens the worn-out weakened nerves; it sharpens the failing appetite, and universally aids digestion. It always quickly brings renewed strength, life, vigor and ambition. Try it and be convinced. Sold by Red Cross Drug Store.

A Train of Cattle.

The 275 head of cattle which Fox, O'Daniel & Co. sold a large Chicago firm, mention of which was made in our last issue, were shipped from this point yesterday morning. The cattle were shipped at the Mueller, Wathen & Kubert distillery, which closes its season next week. The average weight was 1180 lbs., and the price paid was six cents. A special train of 15 cars was required to transport the cattle.—Leb. Enterprise.

The trouble with most cough cures is that they constipate. Kennedy's Cough Syrup does not constipate, but on the other hand its active principles gently move the bowels. It is pleasant to take and is especially recommended for children, as it tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. Sold by the Red Cross Drug Store.

Weak women should read my "Book No. 4 for Women." It was written expressly for women who are not well. The Book No. 4 tells of Dr. Shoop's "Night Cure" and just how these soothing, healing, antiseptic suppositories can be successfully applied. The book, and strictly confidential medical advice is entirely free. Write Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Night Cure is sold Red Cross Drug Store.

A Kentucky Horse Wins.

Our Kentucky readers will doubtless remember a very flashy, good going, walk-trot chestnut gelding shown at the fairs and the Louisville Horse Show last fall, by Mr. Mat Cohen of Lexington, Ky. This gelding (John Randolph) won here and was sold to Miss Emily Bedford, of Brooklyn. He was before the public last week at Durland's and won in all his classes ridden by Mat Cohen; also first in the "ladies" class ridden by Miss Bedford.

This is a terribly handsome gelding and is to-day the best walk-trot in the East, which opinion we not only forward, but Mr. Clause, one of the best judges of "walk-trot in America," ably "first" our belief, by trying the blues upon him in "hotter" company than he will ever meet in any of the future shows this year, we believe.—Farmers Home Journal.

More News From the New England States.

If any one has any doubt as to the virtue of Foley's Kidney Cure, they need only refer to Mr. Alvin H. Stimpson, of Willimantic, Conn., who, after almost losing hope of recovery, on account of the failure of so many remedies, finally tried Foley's Kidney Cure, which he says was "just the thing" for him, as four bottles cured him completely. He is now entirely well and free from all the suffering incident to all kidney trouble. Sold by the Red Cross Drug Store.

Press Association

The Kentucky Press Association will hold its next meeting at Cerulean Springs the week of June 15. This was decided Wednesday at a meeting of the executive committee held at the Seibach. The programme arranged also includes trips to Hopkinsville and Mammoth Cave, where extensive preparation for the pencil pen here will soon be completed. Invitations were also received from Henderson. After a great deal of good-natured discussion the invitation from Hopkinsville was combined with the two from Mammoth Cave and Cerulean Springs.

Mrs. S. Joyce, 180 Sullivan St., Cincinnati, N. H., writes: "About a year ago I bought two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It cured me of a severe case of kidney trouble of several years standing. It certainly is a grand good medicine, and I heartily recommend it." Sold by the Red Cross Drug Store.

Hardesty Schoolhouse

We were absent last week but you a seem so cozy and pleasant that we can not keep away there is any room for us. We will not stay long as news is very scarce in this vicinity.

We are glad to report that Mrs. Eliza Mitchell is able to be out again after being very badly bruised up, caused by her horse running away with her.

Mr. Ezra Goodlett, wife and little son, J. W., of Mt. Zion visited Mr. Goodlett's parents of this place Saturday and Sunday.

The many friends of Mr. Steve Bayne and Mrs. T. E. Wilson regret seriously to learn of their deaths. We extend sympathy to the bereaved families.

Mr. Charley Sparrow and Mr. Eddie Pinkston who have been on the sick list for some time I am very sorry to report no better at this writing.

Mrs. Sarah Gray is spending this week with her son Mr. J. H. Gray.

When you think of indigestion think of Kodol, for it is without doubt the only preparation that completely digests all classes of food, and that is what you need when you have indigestion or stomach trouble—something that will see promptly but thoroughly; something that will get right at the trouble and do the very work itself for the stomach by digesting the food that you eat and that is Kodol. It is pleasant to take, it is sold by the Red Cross Drug Store.

Dirty Work Goes On.

Last Sunday morning Mr. J. V. Tobin, who lives near Baxton found a notice tacked to his gatepost warning him it would not be good for him if he did not put a white man in a tenement house which stands on his place. It seems that some weeks ago a tenant house on Mr. Tobin's farm occupied by George Jones, colored, was burned, the fire resulting from a defective flue. Mr. Tobin has rebuilt the house with the idea that Jones should move into it. But having received this warning, has let the house to Cleveland Kuris, a white man. There is not a better citizen in the county than Mr. Tobin, and it does seem like an outrage that a man that stands so high in the business should be forced to be dictated to as to what disposition he shall make of any of his own property. The warning was signed "Night Riders"—Harrodsburg Herald.

A Lying Skeleton.

Is the final condition of our child that has worms—if it lives. Think of having something in your stomach that eats all you take as nourishment. Nine tenths of the babies have worms, may be yours has. Be certain that it has not by giving it White's Cream Vermifuge—it expels all worms and is a tonic for the baby. Price 25 cents. Sold by the Red Cross Drug Store.
